BULLETIN NO. 610-19

SUBJECT: Excusing Federal Employees from Duty on December 28, 1972, a Day of Mourning for Former President Truman

Heads of Agencies and Independent Establishments:

Former President Harry S. Truman passed away December 26, 1972. President Nixon has proclaimed Thursday, December 28, 1972, to be a National Day of Mourning throughout the United States.

By Executive Order 11693, the President has ordered excused from duty on December 28, 1972, all Federal employees except those who, in the judgment of the head of the agency, cannot be excused for reasons of national security or other public reasons. Instructions for handling pay and leave administration on this day of mourning for all affected employees are attached.

Bernard Rosen
Executive Director
